

Ranmoor Society Programme 2015

|              |                                                                                                                             |                                  |
|--------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| January 20   | Annual General Meetingfollowed by drinks and anecdotesdrawn from Sheffield's current pubculture   | Ron Clayton                      |
| February 17  | Sheffield CathedralIts role in Sheffield's history                                                        | Grace Tebbutt                    |
| March 11     | Guided visit to Sheffield CathedralA guided tour by Cathedral staff                                       |                                  |
| March 17     | Sheffield DialectsCustom and folklore since WorldWar Two                                              | David Battye                     |
| April 21     | Street DetectiveA new approach to exploringSheffield's city centre                                    | Mike Spick                       |
| May 19       | May 1915 as reported in Sheffield'snewspapersThe effect of the Great War 100years ago this month | Mike Killingly andPeter Warr |
| June 16      | Beer and Brewing in Sheffield 1750-2000Two and a half centuries of change inthe industry  | John Dowd                        |
| September 22 | The History of Sheffield CastleFrom an archive assembled byFriends of Sheffield Castle                | Ron Clayton                      |
| October 20   | The Victorian Country HouseExamples of large houses and howthey were run                              | Susan Deal                       |
| November 17  | Sheffield Museums TrustTestimony of Sheffield's pastmetalworking industry                             | John Hamshere                    |