

The 2017 Programme

January 17	AGM The Razing of Sheffield's Castle & the 2nd Barons' War. Enough to enliven any AGM. A glass of wine is also on offer!	Lloyd Powell
February 21	Mrs Findlay's Broadwood Square Piano A fascinating detective story of the speaker's 1804 piano	Michael Hannon
March 21	Landscapes of the Peak District Its lowlands and moorlands and their contrasting geologies	Peter Machan
April 18	Frank Tory and Sons of Sheffield A skilled legacy of sculptures in stone, wood, marble etc.	Sylvia Dunkley
May 16	The Hope Valley Railway Line A quirky journey between Sheffield and Edale	Stephen Gay
May TBA	Ranmoor Walk A closer look at some local roads and buildings.	Gerald Eveleigh
June 20	Model Villages, such as Saltaire and Port Sunlight Built by 19th century employers to house their workers	Susan Deal

September 19	Industrial Heritage of the Rivelin Valley A look at what remains of its mills, workshops and forges	Rivelin Valley Conservation Group
October 17	The History of South Yorkshire's Mining Villages How miners came from afar to dig coal in South Yorkshire	Melvyn Jones
November 21	Mini Presentations by Members Including source material from the Ranmoor Archive	Members