

The 2018 Programme

January 16	AGM Well Dressings and Other Derbyshire Customs Informal drinks. Doors open from 7:30	Ellen Outram
February 20	The Cutlers' Company and Sheffield Assay Office Two very special institutions.	Christopher Jewitt
March 20	Sheffield's Pub Signs and their Origins Reflecting the city's history.	Enid Vincent
April 17	The Roman Encampment at Whirlow Farm Surprising discovery of a Roman estate.	Dawn Coggins
May 15	The Street Names of Central Sheffield Pond Street, Wicker, Button Lane, Balm Green and more.	David Templeman
May TBA	Ranmoor Walk An evening walk to investigate parts of old Ranmoor	Gerald Eveleigh
June 19	Building the Woodhead Tunnel Opened in 1845, electrified in 1955 and closed in 1970.	Chris & Judy Rouse
September 18	The Story of Portland Works A vital part of Sheffield's heritage, now conserved.	Mark Pickering

October 16	The End of World War One What Sheffield's newspapers were saying 100 years ago.	Mike Killingley and Peter Warr
November 20	Sheffield Before Sherlock Victorian crime detection.	Peter Carter